To Whom It May Concern,

We hereby confirm that AXION Hub (formerly Action Media) has undertaken production assignments for our company, including industrial photography, videography, aerial/drone filming, and related production services.

The assignments required the team to operate within an industrial environment and coordinate their production activities according to site requirements and operational conditions.

Based on our experience with their team, AXION Hub successfully completed the required production work and technical capability throughout the engagement.

Sincerely,
